

Apply as PHP Developer (f/m/x)

Join our #sexiestoffice team!

For the further development of our competencies in the areas of Symfony, Pimcore and TYPO3, we are looking for a full time PHP developer (f/m/x) with a high level of solution competence (process understanding).

We are looking forward to your application!

Your tasks in our team:

- you will be working with your teammates on modern and exciting digital projects for our customers
- interface development and connections to the existing systems of our customers code reviews are made in your team via pull requests and require your commitment
- communication with our UI/UX designers and the infrastructure team

Qualifications:

- higher education in computer science advantageous
- experience in the implementation of web projects
- responsible, communicative and open personality

Benefits:

For legal reasons, we are obliged to point out that for this position the min. annual gross salary (according to IT collective agreement) is depending on experience and qualifications between €35,000 and €50,000. We reward valuable experience and qualifications with an overpayment. Therefore, we determine the gross salary individually with you.

The special SIWA benefit: company cars are provided for our certified full-time employees in the form of modern electric cars!

Become part of the #sexiestoffice and send your application to bewerbung@siwa.at!